

An introduction, teachers' stories, learning conversations and next steps

The teacher panel

- Jo Alford
- Jennifer Swift
- Chloe Wardle
- Gemma Stretton
- Kate Wright

Engaging with research: Behaviour for Learning

- The RoM Anthology
- Why was it created?
- How was it put together?
- Who was involved?
- What's in it?
- How can it be used?

The Teacher Panel

- Teachers' experiences of engaging with research to improve behaviour and enhance learning
- 5-10 minutes for each presentation
- Use the prompt sheet to help you come up with questions for the panel
- Keep it conversational!

What key issues have emerged from this conversation for ...

- Ways of improving student learning and behaviour
- Getting colleagues involved
- Developing new teachers' confidence
- Starting small and transferring ideas and practice to the whole school
- Anything else?

The tasters, some activities and next steps

- Have a look at the resources on your tables.
- Choose one or two that you could see yourself using or encouraging colleagues to use in school
- Pulling it together, next steps and sources of support