Hero's Diary

Dear Diary,

Yesterday I was left at the altar by my husband to be Claudio who said that I had been sleeping around. He said that he never wanted to see me again.

The priest, Friar Francis who was meant to marry us said that I should pretend to be dead to make Claudio feel really bad about himself.

If that fails, then he said that I should be sent to a nunnery, and become a nun for the rest of my life because no one would ever want to marry after this terrible gossip which has been spread about me.
